

WE ARE BETTER TOGETHER

We are a family, brothers and sisters to one another. We give up the things we love for the things we love most—each other.

We embrace the mess of community. We readily share meals and possessions, celebration and heartache. We bear one another’s burdens. We pursue authentic friendships that are marked by encouragement, unity, generosity, and sacrifice.

Together we are the Church. Our sacrificial love for one another shows the world a picture of Christ’s love for us. We seek to minimize ourselves and magnify Jesus.

We are uniquely gifted. We use these gifts to joyfully serve one another and our community. Our gifts are interdependent and are strongest together. We prioritize relationships, recognizing that people are more important than tasks.

As leaders, we are servants. We set up tables and take out the trash. There is nothing below us. We humbly submit to authority. We look for ways to value others above ourselves.

How do I live and lead in a way that puts others first?

“For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned. For as in one body we have many members, and the members do not all have the same function, so we, though many, are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another.”
Romans 12:3-5
