

WE EXTEND THE GOSPEL

We are committed to pursuing people with the love and gospel of Jesus in the places where we live, work, and play.

To extend the gospel we must know and we must go.

We know the gospel and can articulate it in common language. We know God's story and understand how it intersects with our story. We can readily give an answer for the hope that we have and can clearly communicate how the grace of Jesus transforms not only our eternity, but also every aspect of our lives.

To extend the gospel, we must go. We go where the Spirit leads: to our neighborhoods, to the margins, and to the nations. We go with lives that speak the story of Jesus, treating all with value, mercy, and grace. We go, willing to wade into the mess, embracing difficult situations and engaging in the challenging issues of our culture.

God champions redemption and rebuilding. As we extend the gospel in word and deed, He uses us to bring His kingdom to earth.

How am I extending the gospel in word and deed?

“The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me, because the Lord has anointed me to bring good news to the poor; he has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to those who are bound.”
Isaiah 61:1

“For if I preach the gospel, that gives me no ground for boasting. For necessity is laid upon me. Woe to me if I do not preach the gospel!” 1 Corinthians 9:16
