

WE LET GOD LEAD

We are followers first. Our ability to lead is directly proportional to our commitment to follow.

We constantly rely on the Spirit, seek guidance in the Word and through prayer, and submit to the Lord's leading. We do this personally and corporately, trusting that Jesus will reveal His purposes for His Church.

God is the author of our story. He is writing our role in His redemptive plan. Our strategies are fully surrendered to His will.

As leaders who walk in step with the Spirit, our plans and our time are interruptible. Our actions are a result of prayerful obedience, not personal impulse. We are not afraid to pause or change course as the Spirit leads.

We are entrusted with much, but our competency is not from ourselves. The capacity we have comes from God and we trust that the Spirit will empower us to minister beyond our abilities.

Apart from Him, we can do nothing.

Am I a follower first?
